

Wild ones: observing city critters

Word Search

Scooter is so happy to be back home in his own bed after his adventure in the city. Here he is dreaming of all the sites, sounds and smells he experienced through the day.

We've put together a "Word Search" including some of the city critters from the book. The words may be up, down, forward, backward or diagonal. Find them and circle them. Good luck!

